1.  Why do we need a vision of the Day of the Lord?

2.  List some things commonly associated with the Day of the Lord or "the end."

3.  How does Peter define "one day?"

4.  1 Cor 15:20-26 speaks to the order of events by making two general statements and qualifiying them both. Place these two statement, with their qualifiers, in outline form.

I. _____
     A. _____
     B. _____

II . _____
     A. _____
     B. _____
     C. _____
     D. _____

5.  The first resurrection and the second resurrection are separated by _____ years.

6.  What is the purpose of the second resurrection?

7. The 1000-year period begins with the _____ _____ and the _____ of Jesus Christ as _____ of _____.

8.   The disciples did not expect Jesus to be crucified, but to establish His _____.

9.  Why did Jesus tell his disciples the parable of stewardship in Luke 19?

10.  The parable in Luke 19 is an overview of what time period and gives us a framework for what?

11.  List three things that this parable teaches that relate to our work of preparation.
    1)
    2)
    3)

12.  What two types of people will be judged at the beginning of the millennium when Jesus Returns?

13.  What two groups of people will compose the army of God at the beginning of the Day of the Lord and what will be their purpose?

14.  The Day of the Lord will be a day of judgement that will result in _____ on earth. What response should this produce in us?

15. This period of restoration is the _____ of the Lord --- the thousand-year reign of Christ—the Millennial Kingdom. Though this period begins with a time of intense _____, it will be a time of increasing _____ and _____ due to the absolute rule of the Kingdom of God on earth.

16. How did Micah describe the day of the Lord when the kingdom of God is restored to Jerusalem?

17. Why will God release Satan at the end of the millennium and allow him to decieve the nations?

18. What are two aspects of God's nature?

19. What is one key difference between the institution of the Church and the institution of Civil government in this age?

20. Write out the paradigm builder.