

Study Questions

Lesson # 27: Building on the Foundation

Foundations are not an end. They are designed to _____ upon.

What do we leave when we move on to maturity and what do we move on to?

Kingdom rewards will be based on our works. True or False? Provide scripture reference

Jesus was and is a priest according to the order of Melchizedek. The writer of Hebrews wanted to explain more about the Melchizedek priesthood but could not. Why?

Moving on to maturity is partaking in the ministry of _____?

Define righteousness? _____

From Deuteronomy 21:5, what is the basic function of a priest?

1) _____

2) _____

3) _____

What is the general meaning of ekklesia (the word most English Bibles translate as church)?

When Jesus said, "I will build my ekklesia," He was saying that He would build an _____

_____.

Declaring blessings, settling controversies and assaults, binding and loosing, sitting in gates, etc., are all _____ functions of priests

Melchizedek was King of Salem. Being a king means he was royalty. According to 1 Peter 2:9, what are we called to be? _____

Peter was speaking of Jesus, the Chief Corner Stone and was drawing a contrast between two kinds of people when he said, "You are a ... royal priesthood..." What are those two kinds of people?

1) _____

2) _____

We function as priests as by _____ not striving.

Moving into the priesthood is not a burden, it is a _____.

Your destiny is not a judgment, it is a _____.