

Study Questions

Lesson #4: Basics About the Future

According to 2 Corinthians 5:10, judgment can be _____ or _____.

Both Malachi and Peter referred to the judgement as the “_____ of the Lord.”

We must conclude that the day of judgement is not an _____ event, but covers a long period of time, which culminates in final or eternal judgment.

When Christ returns, two things happen:

1. The dead will be _____
2. People of God will put on _____

According to Romans 8:19-24, the resurrection is called the redemption of our bodies and the revealing of the _____ of God.

Find the following sentence in Lesson #4 and fill in the blanks:

“ The promise of resurrection and immortality provides a foundation for _____, _____, _____, and _____.

The context of the parable Jesus told in Luke 19, shows that the disciples correctly understood three things:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

When Jesus taught us to pray, “Thy Kingdom Come” what was He telling us to expect?